

GARETH FLANAGAN

Parramatta Academy of Drumming and Percussion is headed by Director/ Principal Gareth Flanagan.

Gareth is a qualified Drum Specialist certified through the Berklee College of Music in Boston. Gareth is also a former student of Australian drumming guru Milan Troha, and together Gareth and Milan have created an extensive curriculum tailored to each individual students skills and abilities.

Gareth studied drumming under the directions of Australia's drumming guru Milan Troha and has also studied at the Berklee College of Music in Boston.

When he's not performing or in the studio, Gareth is writing curriculums and teaching, as the director of the Parramatta Academy of Drumming and Percussion.

Gareth has worked with a mixed bag of project styles, drumming for Pop/soul artist Casey Donovan, heavy metal outfit Sentient, filthy funk rapscallions Lady Brown, and providing percussion on productions for Director Nathan Sheens, Etingshausens Dynamic Arts and ED5 International.
